School stops for the summer, but learning never should!

Did you know kids can lose up to 2.5 months of learning over the summer?

Help your child avoid summer learning loss and prepare for the school year ahead with the new and improved, award-winning Summer Bridge Activities® books.

This series is designed to review essential skills of the current grade and prepare your child for the grade level to come. Each 160-page book is bursting with:

- 12 weeks worth of activities based on current state standards
- Essential skill review and next-grade preparation
- Outdoor and fitness activities
- Science experiments (great boredom busters for indoor days)
- Social studies exercises
- Flash cards
- Reward stickers
- Summer reading lists
- Completion certificate

In just 15 minutes a day—or about the time they have to wait between eating lunch and jumping back in the pool—kids can keep their brains sharp all summer long!
