

Writers sometimes write about what happens in their lives. Things in your life may give you ideas for writing topics. A topic is the subject that you are writing about.

1. Draw a picture of your Halloween costume.

2. Write three sentences to explain your drawing.

3. Tell a partner how or why you chose your costume.

I can write about an event in my life.

