Language Arts

Supporting your child’s educational journey every step of the way.

Spectrum® provides specific support in the skills and standards that your child is learning in today’s classroom.

- Comprehensive, grade-specific titles to prepare for the year ahead
- Subject-specific practice to reinforce classroom learning
- Skill-specific titles to enrich and enhance educational concepts
- Test preparation titles to support test-taking skills

No matter your need, Spectrum is with you every step of the way.

Spectrum is available in these titles for eighth grade success:

- Algebra Grades 6–8
- Data Analysis & Probability Grades 6–8
- Geometry Grades 6–8
- Measurement Grades 6–8

Other titles available:

- Focused Practice for Language Arts Mastery
  - Grammar and usage
  - Parts of speech and sentence types
  - Vocabulary acquisition and usage
  - Writer’s guide
  - Answer key

Carson-Dellosa Publishing LLC
P.O. Box 35665 • Greensboro, NC 27425 USA

carsondellosa.com
Common nouns name people, places, things, and ideas.

People: driver, musician, brother, pediatrician, firefighter
Places: tunnel, courthouse, zoo, backyard, desert, bedroom
Things: desk, helicopter, dictionary, microphone, pine tree
Ideas: nervousness, environmentalism, justice, religion

Proper nouns name specific people, places, and things. Proper nouns are capitalized. For proper nouns that consist of more than one word, capitalize the first letter of each important word.

People: Aunt Lucy, General Eisenhower, Juan, Ms. Braga
Places: New Mexico, People’s Republic of China, Lake Michigan
Things: Eiffel Tower, Baja Bill’s Burritos, Declaration of Independence
Ideas: Hinduism, Marxism

Rewrite It
Rewrite each sentence below. Replace the common nouns shown in boldface with proper nouns.

1. I went to visit my aunt in the city last summer.
2. On a certain day of the week, we took a taxi to the museum, where the works of an artist were being exhibited.
3. We stopped at the street where the museum was located and paid our fare.
4. As we exited the cab, I spotted the tallest building in the city.
5. Inside the museum, I realized I had left my smart phone in the taxi!
6. We spoke with the security guard, and he was kind enough to call the cab company.
7. As we waited, I took a moment to admire a specific religion’s tapestry.
8. At last, we were told the cab driver had my phone, but he was now in a suburb of the city.
9. We arranged to meet him at a restaurant later in the day, and I got my phone back.
Lesson 1.1  Common and Proper Nouns

Proof It
Correct the mistakes in the use of common and proper nouns using proofreading marks.

/ = lowercase letter
\ = capitalize letter

1. The westide metropolitan library will host a Fundraising Event this Saturday.
2. The Major Religions of China are confucianism, taoism, and buddhism.
3. The Bill Of Rights are the first ten amendments of the United States constitution.
4. Elizabeth and her Cousin traveled to lake Ontario during June and July.
5. NASA Scientists are developing a robot that can explore mercury’s surface.
6. Most of the arctic ocean is covered by Sea Ice during Winter.
7. Tony Allen is a Nigerian Drummer who currently lives in Paris.
8. June 14 is National Flag Day.
9. Cane Toads in Australia are an example of an Invasive Species.
10. On New Years Eve each year, officer Markley visits his Nieces in New York City.
11. The Beauty Bouquet Flower Shop is at the Corner of Fourth Street and Wilson Boulevard.
12. The north sea is located between great Britain and the Nations of Scandinavia.
13. On Fridays, my whole family gets together to play Cards and Board Games, like Monopoly and Scrabble.
15. The statue of Liberty and the Grand Canyon are well known United States Landmarks.

Try It
Write a paragraph about your favorite author or actor. Use at least six common and six proper nouns correctly.

_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

Spectrum Language Arts
Grade 8
Grammar: Parts of Speech
Lesson 1.2  Collective and Abstract Nouns

Collective nouns are used to describe groups of specific animals, people, or things.

- A group of birds is a flock.
- A group of ships is a fleet.
- A group of judges is a panel.

A collective noun refers to a single group, so it acts as a singular noun. When a collective noun is plural (refers to more than one group), it acts as a plural noun.

Incorrect: The flock fly south for the winter.
Correct: The flock flies south for the winter.
Correct: The flocks fly south for the winter.

Abstract nouns describe ideas rather than people, places, or things that can be perceived with the five senses.

pleasure  grumpiness  inability  contentment

Complete It
Circle the verb in each sentence that correctly completes the sentence.

1. Next week, the committee (decide, decides) whether to approve the new bike lane.
2. A swarm of bees (chase, chases) a foolish young cub that wanted their honey.
3. Bunches of grapes (rot, rots) inside a misplaced crate.
4. This pair of shoes (hurts, hurt) my feet and (needs, need) to be returned to the store.
5. My staff (enjoys, enjoy) our weekly outings to a nearby restaurant for lunch.
6. The huge bouquets of daisies (fill, fills) the room with a bright, fresh scent.
7. A team of oxen (wait, waits) inside the barn, ready to be hitched to the wagon.
8. A pack of wolves (startle, startles) the sheep.
9. The panel of judges (award, awards) blue ribbons to the top performers.
10. Whenever the National Anthem begins, the audiences (stand, stands) at attention.
11. The fleet of ships (leave, leaves) at dawn.
12. Swarms of flies (cloud, clouds) the air above the pig sty.
Lesson 1.2  Collective and Abstract Nouns

Identify It
Circle the abstract nouns in the sentences below.

1. My uncle is convinced that the key to happiness is eating good food.
2. Louis plans to major in agriculture at the University of Minnesota.
3. Early childhood is often a time of freedom and exploration.
4. Your mathematical capabilities never cease to amaze me.
5. Can intelligence be measured accurately by testing?
6. Sometimes the truth is harder to believe than the reality.
7. The process of learning how to program a computer may be daunting.
8. What type of shoes do I need to buy for ballet class?
9. Mr. Thompson’s greatest pleasure is spending the afternoon reading.
10. As the students continued to misbehave, Ms. Yang’s patience was tested.
11. Imagine my delight when Grandpa Hennessy finally arrived from Ireland.
12. Never ignore the opportunity to help someone who is in trouble.
13. Hiro’s dedication was recognized with an award given at the banquet.
14. My fear of snakes kept me from attending the most recent field trip.
15. Yoko demonstrated her maturity by being the first to apologize.

Try It
Collective nouns for specific animals are often unusual. Use a dictionary or the Internet to look up the collective noun for each type of animal and use it in a sentence.

1. crows: _________________________________________________________________________
2. baboons: _________________________________________________________________________
3. vultures: _________________________________________________________________________
4. stingrays: _________________________________________________________________________
5. raccoons: _________________________________________________________________________
6. foxes: _________________________________________________________________________
7. emus: _________________________________________________________________________
8. eagles: _________________________________________________________________________
Lesson 1.3  Plurals and Possessives

Although plural and possessive nouns often sound similar, they are spelled differently and have different meanings.

Plural noun: The novelists gathered in Chicago for a conference.
Singular possessive noun: The novelist’s main character traveled to Chicago.
Plural possessive noun: The novelists’ meeting was postponed until next month.

Proof It
Use proofreaders’ marks to correct the mistakes in plural and possessive nouns in the sentences below.

1. Deserts’ cover about 20 percent of Earth’s surfaces.
2. Harsh conditions mean that deserts are home to animals with special adaptations.
3. Deserts inhabitant’s include lizards, snakes, fennec foxes, and scorpions.
4. Our planets largest habitat is the marine biome.
5. Biomes relationships are vital to Earth’s well-being.
6. Hippo’s, rhino’s, and lion’s make their homes in grassland biomes.
7. The tundras extreme cold makes it a poor place for vegetation to flourish.
8. One reason that forest biomes’ are important to Earth is tree’s ability to absorb carbon dioxide.
9. Hot, semiarid, coastal, and cold are the four types of desert’s.
10. Mosquitoes ability to live in a tundra biome surprises many people.
11. Tropical forest’s, such as rain forests, produce plants that are not found anywhere else in the world.
12. A coral reefs many structures provide homes to countless sea creature’s.
13. The worlds youngest biome is the Arctic tundra.
14. An invasive animals’ behavior can eventually affect more than one biome.
Lesson 1.3 Plurals and Possessives

Rewrite It
Rewrite each phrase below to make it a plural, a singular possessive, or a plural possessive.

1. the backpacks belonging to the girls
2. the tail of the raccoon
3. the experiment belonging to the scientists
4. the baseball glove of Roberto
5. more than one sweater
6. the cat belonging to the Browns
7. the covers of the books
8. the painting of Charles
9. more than one strawberry
10. the moon belonging to the planet
11. the leaves of the trees
12. the buttons of the remote control

Try It
Write a sentence for each word in the box.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>trains</th>
<th>train’s</th>
<th>trains’</th>
<th>birds</th>
<th>bird’s</th>
<th>birds’</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
1.      |        |        |       |       |       |
2.      |        |        |       |       |       |
3.      |        |        |       |       |       |
4.      |        |        |       |       |       |
5.      |        |        |       |       |       |
6.      |        |        |       |       |       |
Lesson 1.4

Appositives

An appositive is a noun or phrase that renames another noun in a sentence. The appositive offers more information about the noun.

Lucille, my great aunt in Texas, owns a small art gallery.
The phrase my great aunt in Texas is an appositive that renames Lucille.

When the appositive is nonessential, or not necessary to the sentence, it should have a comma before and after it. In the example above, you can remove the appositive, and the sentence still makes sense.

When the appositive is essential to the meaning of the sentence, do not set it off with commas. In the following sentence, removing the appositive Jane Austen would make the sentence much less clear.
The author Jane Austen wrote six novels.

Identify It

In each sentence below, underline the appositive. On the line, write E if it is essential and NE if it is nonessential.

1. China, one of the world’s most populated countries, is one of Earth’s oldest civilizations. ______
2. Beijing, China’s capital city, is also known as Peking. ______
3. Mount Everest, Earth’s tallest mountain, lies on the border of China and neighboring Nepal. ______
4. The bicycle, China’s main form of transportation, is a speedy and energy-efficient way to travel. ______
5. China is home to the giant panda, an animal that survives primarily on bamboo. ______
6. China’s neighbor Mongolia shares the Gobi Desert with China. ______
7. Students around the world are currently learning China’s official language, Mandarin Chinese. ______
8. China, a country whose history is divided into dynasties, has a communist government today. ______
9. The Chinese, talented inventors, created things like paper, compasses, porcelain, and silk. ______
10. The Chinese leader Mao Tse-tung was instrumental in China’s shift to a communist government. ______
Lesson 1.4  Appositives

Complete It
There is an appositive in each sentence below. On the line, write E if it is essential and NE if it is nonessential, and add commas where necessary.

1. Ian my brother’s best friend is moving to California in the fall. ______
2. Families from all over the county will be attending the summer’s best entertainment the Highland County Fair. ______
3. Russian my mother’s first language is difficult to learn because it uses a different alphabet. ______
4. Some athletes increase the amount of complex carbohydrates or starches they consume before an event. ______
5. An undersea earthquake can cause tsunamis or massive waves. ______
6. The artist Claude Monet was especially known for his paintings of water lilies. ______
7. Alina whistled for Peter her new Jack Russell terrier and fed him his dinner. ______
8. Next weekend, we’ll be going to my cousin Josh’s bar mitzvah the Jewish ceremony in which a boy becomes a man. ______
9. The library does not have any available copies of Darren’s favorite book, Al Capone Does My Shirts. ______
10. The dream that Quinn had since she was a little girl to meet tennis legend Venus Williams in person was finally coming true. ______
11. The British doctor Edward Jenner created the smallpox vaccine and saved many lives. ______
12. Each Halloween Mia loves to read the chilling stories of horror writer Edgar Allan Poe. ______

Try It
Write four sentences that contain appositives. Write E or NE after each to tell whether you used an essential or nonessential appositive.

1. _____________________________________________________________
2. _____________________________________________________________
3. _____________________________________________________________
4. _____________________________________________________________
Lesson 1.5  Personal Pronouns

A pronoun is a word used in place of a noun. A subject pronoun can be used as the subject of a sentence. It can be singular (I, you, he, she, it) or plural (we, you, they).

They canceled the meeting because of bad weather.

An object pronoun is the object of a verb or a preposition. It can also be singular (me, you, him, her, it) or plural (us, you, them).

Please give him my thanks for the lovely bouquet.

A possessive pronoun shows possession. Singular possessive pronouns are my, your, his, her, and its, and plural possessive pronouns are our, your, and their.

Your teeth should be brushed at least twice a day.

Some singular and plural possessive pronouns can stand alone: mine, yours, his, hers, its, ours, theirs.

The pickup truck was ours. Wilma donated hers to the church bazaar.

Complete It
Circle the pronouns that correctly complete the sentences.

1. (Mine, My) friend Kyoko ordered butterfly eggs for (our, ours) science experiment.
2. (They, Theirs) soon arrived, safely shipped inside (their, hers) sealed container.
3. (We, Ours) opened (it, hers) to find the eggs lying in rows on a leaf.
4. Kyoko lifted the leaf from (it, its) box and placed (it, its) inside an aquarium.
5. The aquarium was (her, hers), so (I, me) prepared the sugar water.
6. In just a couple of days, the caterpillars hatched and began wriggling (theirs, their) little bodies.
7. (We, Our) fed (theirs, them) every day, and before long, (them, they) had grown much bigger.
8. Kyoko called (me, mine) one day with exciting news: some of (they, them) had attached (theirs, their) bodies to twigs.
9. (My, Mine) mother used (her, hers) camera to record the process.
10. A caterpillar sheds (its, their) striped skin and hardens to form a chrysalis.
11. (You, Your) would be amazed by (them, its) beauty.
12. When (it, its) finally splits open, a butterfly emerges and spreads (it, its) wings.
Lesson 1.5 Personal Pronouns

Rewrite It
The sentences below contain errors in pronoun usage. Rewrite each sentence to correct the errors.

1. Mine Aunt Helga was married last week to hers best friend.

2. Frogs enlarge them vocal sacs to make sounds that will attract a mate.

3. Them shipped theirs automobile overseas so its would be waiting for they in England.

4. Henry painted yours portrait, framed it, and wrapped them as a gift.

5. The St. Louis Cardinals played they last home game yesterday.

6. Its is the largest hydroelectric dam anywhere near ours city.

7. Theirs dog stands on it front paws and, to mine amazement, takes a few steps.

8. The library stores thems down in the basement, so us needs to find the stairs.

9. I handed hims mine science textbook and told hims to open them to page 135.

10. Yours is on the top shelf, and mines is below it on the second shelf.

Try It
Write sentences containing each type of pronoun.

1. subject pronoun: ____________________________________________________________

2. object pronoun: ____________________________________________________________

3. possessive pronoun that comes before a noun: _________________________________

4. possessive pronoun that stands alone: ________________________________________